

LPS Extra Mile Walk

Research shows that healthy, well-nourished children are better learners. For many students, school breakfast and lunch are the only meals of the day. For these children and their families, the weekend often creates a food crisis; a weekend can be a long time to go without food.

The Food Bank of Lincoln strives to alleviate that food insecurity. Through School Food Markets and Pantries at 29 schools, about 4,330 students and their families have access to nutritious food and fresh produce each month during the school year. The Food Bank’s Backpack initiative provides food-filled backpacks for 989 students at 25 Lincoln Public Schools each Friday during the academic year.

We have two major goals for the annual Extra Mile Walk:

- Educating our community about the needs of children at Lincoln Public Schools
- Raising money for this valuable program

The cost to fund these Child Hunger programs ranges between $100-$250 per student during the academic year. This includes all essential program costs involved with food markets and distributing backpacks. Please consider sponsoring the annual Extra Mile Walk and help us work toward a future where no Nebraska child is hungry.
